Your cloud Your blanket & my pity song
Hovering on Your front lawn
Carry on until it s gone

What can I do?
The river is over run
We re swimming in a flood You know
I thought I felt Your touch
Now the water is rising up
Now all my lovers raise their cups

Then I lie naked in a rampage
In the flesh face to face with the onset
I forget everything thats ever made me rise again

The river is over run
We re swimming in a flood You know
I thought I felt Your touch
Now the water is rising up
Now all my lovers raise their cups
