

Mermaid Of Ontario
Pat Dailey

My first post, so I welcome corrections!

capo on the first fret.

Bb Bb

Oh the Mermaid of Ontario

Bb F

Had long green stringy hair-io

Bb Eb

And a seaweed gown to wear-io

F Bb

But she had no one to marry-o

Eb F Bb

Later verses are the same as first verse.

And the Mermaid of Ontario
Loved a big mouth bass named Larry-o
Who lived in lake St. Claire-io
Underneath the St. Claire ferry-o

Eb F Bb

So the Mermaid of Ontario
Sent a goldfish emissary-o
To ask that bass named Larry-o
If he would consent to marry-o

Eb F Bb

Oh no no no said Larry-o

My life I would not share-io

I d rather play solitarie-io

Or read a book from the fish library-o

Eb F Bb (2x)

Or sit around in my underwear-io

Eb F Bb (2x)

And before I d marry you, I d marry-o
A guernsey cow from the dairy-o
Or eat a poison berry-o
And wind up as a fish with dysentery-io

Eb F Bb

slower (strumming)

Eb F Bb (2x)

For the Mermaid of Ontario, it was more than she could bear-io
So she cried for a day and she swam away with a yuppy little guppy named Gary-o

Eb F Bb (2x)

Now their a happy pair-io
Cuz he s a millionaire-io
In his yacht neath Lake Ontario
They cuddled in a cozy little chair-io

Eb F Bb

And listened to his underwater stereo

Eb F Bb (2x)

And that big mouth bass named Larry-o
Did marry a cow from the dairy-o
And she fed him a poison berry-o
And he wound up in the fishes cemetary-o

Eb F Bb (2x)

And that s the whole scenario.
