I live my life one drink at a time, happily out of my mind
I never thought I d find somebody like you to give my whole life to Hope I don t let my hopes get up too high
But I don t know tomorrow you might change you re mind

But I m feeling pretty good tonight

(Same As Chorus)

I live my life one drink at a time, happily out of my mind

I never thought I d find somebody like you to give my whole life to

Babe I might have finally got things right

But I hope tomorrow you don t change you re mind

Cause I m feeling pretty good tonight, feeling pretty good tonight
