BLOODBEAT - Patrick Wolf

Tabbed by: Barney Gale
Email: barney.gale@gmail.com

Tuning: Standard (EADGBe)
Capo: First Fret

Riff throughout song:

This is an arpeggio of a G#maj7, but there isn't a particularly easy way of fingering it (heh, heh)

Note these are actual frets, relative to the nut, not the capo.

	1	2	3	4	1	2	3	4
e	-----
B	-----			8	-----
G	-----			8	-----
D	-10-10-10-10-10	-----			-10-10-10-10-10-10	-----
A	-----

If you're that way inclined, I suppose you could play it like this:

e	-----3-----
B	-1--1--1--1--1--1--4	----	1--1--1--1--1--1	-----
G	-----							1	-----

This is made much easier by the capo on fret 1
Note that the timing of each chord corresponds to each repeat of this riff
