PATRICK WOLF
WIND IN THE WIRES

Tabbed by: Alex Turgeon (alexturgeon@gmail.com)

This is the way i play it. the notes are right but if you find he plays them somewhere else i dont really care to know. The reason why i do play it this way is because its easier to play the melody and rhytm at the same time. Cheers.

Guitar 1:

      Cadd9      Am7      Em7
E|-----0-----0-----0-----|

(Em)      C
Wind in the wires

      Am      Em
Itâ€™s the sigh of wild electricity

      C      Am
Iâ€™m on the edge of a cliff

      Em
Surpassing Comfort and security

      C      Am
But here comes a gale (here comes a gale)

      Em
A crippling anger

      C      Am
Sea birds are blown into the rocks

      Em
Grace is lost to thunder

      C      Am      Em

Thunder... (Pressure) Pressure (pressure)

C Am Em

Thunder Pressure Getting lower

C Am

But see her waters break

Em

Rain falling to the sea

C Am

Into a granite wave

Em

A unit... A family

C Am Em

it s just it s just a

C Am Em

sigh just a little sigh

C Am

This wild

Em

of electricity

C Em

Made static by industry

C Am

Like a bird

Em

in an aviary

C Am

Singing to the sky

Em

Just singing to be free

C

To be free...
