

Libbies Song
Patti Smith

if it wasn t for your golden hair
I would not be belonely
If it wasn t for your golden hair
I would not be alone

G

If it wasn t for your piercing stare
D G
I would not be belonely

If it wasn t for your piercing stare

D G

I would not be alone

D G

I would not waltz in a widow s line

D G

What was yours would not be mine

If it wasn t for your golden hair

D G

I would not be alone

G

You courted me with princely airs

D G

Said you d love me only

Kiss the ribbons in my hair

D G

Said darling come and fly

G

Flower of the Calvary

D G

You swept me off my saddle

G

Lifted me into your life

D G

A soldier s wife was I

D G

You marched proudly for the horn

D G

I prayed for your swift return

D G

I waited for you so forlorn

D G

Ere to be alone

G

I longed for you, I longed to die

D G

I was so belonely

The pillow s bare by my side

D G

And yet I shall abide

D G

For heaven has aset for me

D G

Companion for eternity

D G

So kiss the ribbons in my hair

D G

Say darling come and fly

G

If it wasn t for your golden hair

D G

I would not be alonely

If it wasn t for your golden hair
