On the long ride home

One day I took your tiny hand
Put your finger in the wedding band
Your daddy gave a piece of land
We laid ourselves the best of plans
Forty years go by with someone laying in your bed
Forty years of things you say you d never said
How hard would it have been to say some kinder words instead
I wonder as I stare up at the sky turning red

Chorus

G D
Headlights searchin? down the driveway

G A
The house is dark as it can be

G Bm
I go inside and all is silent

A
It seems as empty as the inside of me
