

Love Throw A Line
Patty Griffin

Capo 5

Yep E7 through the verses...

E7

Lets write a story of a tidal wave
We run out of luck, we run out of days
We run out of gas a hundred miles away from a station
Theres a war and a plague, smoke and disaster
Lions in a coliseum, screams of laughter
Motherless children, a witness and a Bible
Nothin but the rain ahead and no chance for our survival

A

Just before the flood comes

E7

Just before the night falls

A

Just before the blood runs

G E7

Into the valley

A

Just before my eyes go

G A

Just before we cant go no further

G A E7

Love throws a line to you and me

E7

Heard someone talking from very far away
Sister oh sister, did I hear them say
Prisoner of this endless story of pain
You hold the key, try to find a way

A

Just before the flood comes

E7

Just before the night falls

A

Just before the blood runs

G E7

Into the valley

A

Just before my eyes go

G A

Just before it all blows to pieces

G A E7

We see love throw a line to you and me

E7

Love... throw a line

Love... throw a line

Love... you better pick up your pace if we re gonna win this race

Love... we re runnin out of time pull yourself from up behind

Love... throw a line