Sweet Lor raine the fiery head brown eyed schemer who came from a long line of drinkers and dreamers who knew that sunshine don?t hold up to dark whose businesses fail who sleep in the park Lor raine who spoke of paintings in Paris and outlandish things to her family just to scare us whose heart went pokin? where it shouldn?t ought

C9 G D
whose mother could only, spit at the thought

C9 Dsus4 G C9 D Dsus4 G C9 D
Lorraine, sweet Lorraine

Dsus4 G C9 D
Her father would tear out like a page of the Bible

then he?d burn down the house to announce his arrival her mother was working and never was home
Lor raine carved out a little life of her own

Dsus4 G C9 D

Lorraine started working, Lorraine went to school her mother threw stones at her on the day that she moved now isn't that a very strange thing to do

C9 G D
for someone who never really wanted you

C9 Dsus4 G C9 D
Lorraine, sweet Lorraine

Am C
Her daddy called her a slut and a whore
G D Am
on the night before her wedding day C
the very next morning, at the church

D C9
her daddy gave, Lorraine away, Lorraine away Dsus4 G
Lorraine, sweet Lorraine

Dsus4 G C9
D
In the battle of time, in the battle of will it's only your hope and your heart that gets killed and it's harder and harder Lorraine, to believe in magic C9

C9 G D
when what came before you was so very tragic C9 Dsus4 G
Lorraine, sweet Lorraine

Dsus4 G C9 D Dsus4 G C9 D
Sweet Lorraine

----repeats, fades out on D
