These Boots Were Made For Walkin
as performed by
Patty Larkin
w/ Megan McDonough
Christine Lavin
Sally Fingerett

contributed by: byau@muddcs.cs.hmc.edu

I don t know whether or not Patty wrote this song, but I first heard it on the Bitchin Babes Tour CD (with Christine Lavin, Megan McDonough, and Sally Fingerett).

These are the chords and lyrics as best as I can figure out.

Chords used:	E	A	G(?)	??
	0	0	x	x
	0	2	x	x
	1	2	x	x
	2	2	0	x
	2	0	2	0
	0	0	3	2

The way she plays is picking a bass string on the on-beat and strumminmg on the off-beat

(E) You keep saying you got something for me
(E) Something you call love, but confess
(A) That you ve been messin, where you shouldn t ve been messin, yeah
(E) and now someone else is gettin all your best.

CHORUS

(G?) These boots were made for

(E) walking
(G?) and that s just what they ll
(E) do
(G?) and one of these days these
(E) boots are gonna,
(G?) walk all (??) over
(E) you.

You keep saying that you don t wanna be changing
You keep saying that you ll never get burned
I just found me a brand new box of matches, yeah and what he knows you ain t got time to learn fade.
