```
G           D           Bm          A
Give me a moment, to try and explain it
    G           D           A
And how it has changed the man that I am
G           D           Bm          A
Life has a way when you try to arrange it
    G           D           A           D
Of makin a fool of the best laid plans
                  G           D           Bm              A
Guess what I m tryin to say is you took me by surprise
              G           D           A
One word is all that it takes, and forever s on my mind
It happens everytime
```

Chorus:
```
D                           G
I hear the sweetest sound, my world stops turnin round
Bm                          G           A           D
Like I m on Holy ground, when you call my name
D                           G
It sets the sky on fire, burning with my desire
Bm                          G           A           D
Stronger deeper higher, when you call my name
```

D Bm A

```
G                   D           Bm          A
The way that it moves me, it s simply amazing
     G           D           A
Yeah somehow it seems, much bigger than words
    G           D   Bm          A
When you call my name, angels start singing
        G           D           A           D
The most beautiful sound that I ever heard
                  G           D           Bm              A
And it starts all over again, this feeling deep inside
        G           D           A
```

A blessed chain of events, a Heaven sent desire
It happens everytime

CHORUS

     G   D   Bm   A
When you call my name, ahhhhhhhhhhhh
