Intro

C

Hey living thing, buy me a drink

F Am G

and drive me out to the airport

C

give me two hundred dollars and say

F Am G

the best thing anyone s ever said

C

if you steal every word, from your grandmother s purse

F Am G

and lay them out on the dashboard

C F C F Am G

we ll be fine...

C G C F Em F

we ll be fine.

C

Hey living thing, if you re turning in

F Am G

I ll wake you when something changes

C

then I ll ring all the bells again

F Am G

and you ll spill champagne in my shoes

C

We ll make rose-coloured smoke

F Am G

from bad horoscopes, confetti from news pages

C F C F Am G

and you ll be mine...

F

you ll be mine.

C

G C F

and the same heart attack

Em F G F C

will keep feeding back

G C F

right under the street

Em F G F G

skipping every other beat

Fill/Outro

(Hey living thing, let me in to the world you live in)

C F Am G x2

C

Hey living thing, you ve waited for it

F Am G

for billions counting backwards

C

like a dog on a fire escape,

F Am G

like a bird in a basement

Am

Now release your breath from its paper bag

Em

and no matter what you hear

F

if green lights should rain down tonight

Dm G

it means tomorrow s another year

C G C F

The same heart attack

Em F G F C

will keep feeding back

G C F

right under the street

Em F G F G

skipping every other beat

Dm Am

Hey living thing, you re breathing again

G F C

you re breathing again

End on:

Fill/Outro
