In the 60s and the 70s
E A7 E A7
Before we d even met
E A7 E A7
I took those pin-ups to my heart
E7 E
Cause I hadn t found you yet

In back of cab in the streets of Rome
I drunkly called a name
On 13th floor in Paris hotel
I looked north west in vain

Cm G
In bus shelter and phone box
Cm G
Whilst piss the piss ran round my feet
Cm G* E
I caught wrong bus, rang wrong number
A D
Cause my life was incomplete

Cm G
So in case you think it wrong to ask
Cm G
In case I don t ask you
Cm G* E
In case it may just cross your mind
A D
In case it don t, I do
Cm G
In case you think it s up to me
Cm G
In case I need a clue
Cm G* E
In case you want that bended knee
A D
In case you don t, I do

In pick-up truck on dusty road
The wheel your only friend

What kept that big wheel turning
Was the thought of you at end

On desert highway hitch-hiking
Thumbing from A to B
I knew not where I headed
Before my map to thee

At foot of the Alps in Switzerland
I yodelled through the rain
And it sort of kept me going
To think you d probably do the same

So in case you think it wrong to ask
In case I don t ask you
In case it may just cross your mind
In case it don t, I do
In case you think it s up to me
In case I need a clue
In case you want that bended knee
In case you don t, I do

C G
Now again we re miles apart

C G
We talk but do not touch

C G
Water, food and alcohol

A D
I miss them half as much

C G
Cause halfway up that mountain pass

C G
No compass or no guide

C G
Still don t stand me steady for

A D
When you I m not beside

So if you need a shelter
I guess I ll need one too
If you want the same address
Even if you don t, I do
