

Just Because

Paul McCartney

Well, well, well,

C

just because you think you re so pretty,

G

and just because your mama thinks you re hot.

C

Just because you think you ve got somethin

C

that nobody else has got.

C

Well, you know you make me spend all my money, honey,

F

you laughed and you called me old Santa Claus.

F

F#

C

C/B

A

Ooh, I m tellin you, baby, I m through with you,

D

G

C

because, well, well, just because.

Well, just because you think I d be lonesome,

and just because you think that I ll be blue.

Just because you think I d be foolish to stay at home, waitin round for you.

Well, though you made me drop all my girlfriends,

you laughed and you called me old Santa Claus.

Well, I m tellin you, baby, I m through with you,

because, well, well, just because.

Come On, Boys!

Inter: with chords of the first part.

Well, there will come a time when you ll be lonesome,

and there will be a time when you feel blue.

There ll come a time when old Santa,

yeh, he won t pay no bills for you.

Ooh, if baby, you say that I m foolish, honey,

you laughed and you called me old Santa Claus.

I m tellin you, baby, I m through with you,

because, well, well, just because.

Oh, Come On!

Inter.

Well, now just because you think you re so pretty, mm,

and just because your mama thinks you re the hottest thing in town.
Just because you think you ve got somethin
ooh, that nobody else has got.

Well, though you make me spend all my money, honey,
you laughed and you called me old Santa Claus.

Well, I m tellin you, baby, I m through with you,

D G C C/B
because, well, well, just because.

A D G C C/B
Yeah, because, well, well, just because.

A D G C
Mm-mm, because, well, well, just because