If you should ever feel that something s wrong
I m going to want it put it right
To bring a happy ending to our song

If your love was to trickle through my fingers
What would it leave me with

Find the right boy for the right girl

When all our friends have gone away and we re alone
There s nothing left to shout about
Together we ll explore the great unknown
I d say we won t be going out tonight
Let tonight be the one that we remember
When love is all that stays
Only love remains
When love (only love) is all that stays (love remains)
Only love remains
Only love (only love) remains (love remains)
