Well, I'm trying to get some sleep, but these motel walls are cheap

Lincoln Duncan is my name and here's my song, here's my song

Em D
My father was a fisherman, my mama was the fisherman's friend
G A D
And I was born in the boredom and the chowder
C G C G
So when I reached my prime, I left my home in the Maritimes
C G D Em
Headed down the turnpike for New England, sweet New England

Holes in my confidence, holes in the knees of my jeans
G A D

Just later on the very same night

when I crept to her tent with a flashlight
G A D

and my long years of innocence ended

Well, she took me to the woods, saying Here comes something and it feels so good!

And just like a dog I was befriended I was befriended

Oh, oh, what a night, Oh what a garden of delight

Even now that sweet memory lingers

I was playing my guitar, lying underneath the stars

Just thanking the Lord for my fingers, for my fingers
