

Soul And The Sun
Paul van Dyk

I thought I'd throw together an acoustic version of this song. The version I'm going off track 10, CD1, Gatecrasher Anthems. Chords have been quickly put together; they're not perfect.

Bm
In the twist of the morning light
Bm
Lies a soldier that doesn't fight
Bm
There's a battle going wrong
Bm                    F#m
War don't care what side you're on

Bm
Someone's watching from far away
Bm
No one's ever really safe
D                    A
And everyone gets hurt
G                    A
But only some will learn

Bm
Caught in the flame of a burning fire
D
Do you wanna let go
D
Do you wanna go high
A
You've had enough
E
Your heart's above

Bm
This is a feeling you cannot name
D
The future's always been the same
The time has come
E                    Bm    D    A
To walk with the soul and the sun
E                    Bm    D    A
To walk with the soul and the sun

Bm

Look to the sky and find it grey

Bm

Without a road you make your way

Bm

All you ve got is what you know

F#m

It s up to you where you go

Bm

Take a chance

Bm

Black or white

Bm

In the end s no wrong or right

D

And all that you ve been through

G

And all that it leads to

Bm

Caught in the flame of a burning fire

D

Do you wanna let go

D

Do you wanna go high

You ve had enough

E

Your heart s above

Bm

This is a feeling you cannot name

D

The future s always been the same

The time has come

To walk with the soul and the sun
