Bb
I remember the pain in my mother s eyes
Вb
                                       Dm
I remember the pain of her compromise years ago
I always wanted to help to make it go away
Bb
                                                   Dm C
I didn t know it was her freedom that she needed so
                C
                      \mathbf{B}\mathbf{b}
                                Gm
And she said to me, she said to me
Chorus
He hitch-hiked to Maine
We went cross-country
I had to leave my home
I had to raise a family
                                        Dm
We did the best we could being so young
We tried to hard to build a happy home
Вb
I never knew what to say to anybody
                                         Dm
I didn t know what to do, I was far too young
Вb
But everybody could feel the suffocation
Underneath for facade of a happy home
And she said to me, she said to me
Chorus
He hitch-hiked to Maine
We went cross-country
I had to leave my home

Bridge
                                        Dm
We did the best we could being so young
We tried so hard to build a happy home
Bb
Sacrificed her dreams to motherhood
                                    Dm
Waiting and waiting to be understood fully Sacrificed her years to the family
Waiting and waiting to be heard finally
And she said to me, she said to me
Chorus
He hitch-hiked to Maine
We went cross-country
                      Dm
                                       Dm
