FOLLOW YOUR ROAD
by Pauline Wilson

Intro: C-C7/E-F-Bb7-Am-C-F-Em- Dm-G

C7/E creates a better tone than a plain Em but you may use it interchangeably

I.

C CM7

So many roads that seem to lead down to the sea,

Gm7 C7 F Bb

I wonder which road will be the right one for me.

C CM7

Others may fall away, dead ending left and right.

Gm C7 FM7-Em-Dm ->D

But there is this one road that journeys far out of sight.

Chorus I:

Am Gm - C7

Have you wondered where your road will lead you?

FM7

Maybe to a bright day of sunshine,

Bb7

or a starry night in heaven.

Am Gm - C7

Or it might be you re afraid to go, afraid to go,

F Em

But you ve got to follow your road,

Dm G C

or you ll never know, never know.

(Do Intro Chords) C-C7/E-F-Bb-Am-C-F-Em- Dm-G

II.

C CM7

We are all but travelers living in a foreign land,

Gm7 C7 F Bb7

Just trying to find our way best as we can.

C CM7

Looking for an answer, trying to find some light

Gm C7

And though we have journeyed far,

F Em Dm ->D

it s not quite far enough..

Am Gm - C7

Have you wondered where your road will lead you

FM7

Bb

Maybe to a song that needs singing, or a summer rain

Am Gm - C7

Or it might be you're afraid to go, afraid to go,

F Em Dm

But you've got to follow your road, or you'll never know.

Am/G D/F#

You've got to follow your road, follow your road, follow your road.

F Bb

You've got to follow your road, follow your road, follow your road.

Am Gm-C7

You've got to follow your road, follow your road, follow your road.

F Em Dm

And maybe someday your road will take you far away.

(Interlude)

Am/G- D/F#-F-Bb

Am-Gm-C7-F-Em-Dm

Am/G D/F#

You've got to follow your road, follow your road, follow your road.

F Bb7

You've got to follow your road, follow your road, follow your road.

Am Gm-C7

You've got to follow your road, follow your road, follow your road.

F Em Dm

And maybe someday your road will take you far away.

Am/G D/F#

Keep following, you'll find it,

F Bb7

And someday you will get there

Am Gm-C7 F-Em-Dm

Don't be afraid.

Am/G D/F#

You've got to follow your road, follow your road, follow your road.

F Bb7

You've got to follow your road, follow your road, follow your road.

Am Gm-C7

You've got to follow your road, follow your road, follow your road.

(Song Fades)
