V1	No more upset mornings	no more trying evenings
	When the gas in my tank	feels like money in the bank
V2	In the far off distance	as my tail lights fade
	Feel like a question is forming	and the answer s far

 This American dream I am disbelieving I m gonna blow it all this time take me one last ride No one thinks to witness but they will some day I will be what I could be once I get out of this town
