TRANSCONTINENTAL

By PEDRO THE LION

Off the new album ACHILLES HEEL

C Am7 Em F Fm C
Engine severs lower legs, I feel my bruised heart beating - Spinal cord Am7 Em F Fm Am Am/G
remains in tact, still sending and receiving - Laying back on shoulder
F C C/B Am Am/G F blades, cargo rushing past - Missing limbs beneath the cars, twitching on G C/E F D/F# G G/G# Am F
the tracks - Clic clack, now handicapped, north am transcontinental -

C Am Em F G G/G# Bb

C Am Em F Fm C
I remember as I bleed, certain tales of bravery - A man who s legs were Am Em F Fm Am Am/G F
trapped beneath, a fallen evergreen tree - He decided he would chop them
C C/B Am Am/G F off above the knee - To sacrifice his shins and feet, and set his torso
G Dm Am F Em E/G# Dm
free - The luxury of having been spared the hard part - You d think would Am F G C/E F D/F# G G/G# be enough for me to pull this off - But I m left to bleed to death - Now Am G F C Dm G G# Bb C all the man I ve ever been - North am transcontinental.

THAT S ALL FOLKS
