

Paintbox
Pendragon

(vocal starts with the note B)

[Verse 1]

Em                D                Em                D
Painting pictures of a thousand different paths
Em                D                Em                D
We sketch an outline of a love that hopes to last
Em                D                Em                D
Casting a wand over imaginary hopes
Em                D                Em                D
And close our eyes so we don t feel the ebb and flow

[Chorus]

C                D                C                D
And paintbox, you are my only hope
G                D
of covering the faded past and starting out once more
C                C                C                C
With a fortune in new colours, new hopes to inspire
G                D                G                D                Em
I paint the path I want to take and paint the life of fire

[Verse 2]

Em                D                Em                D
Marking out our lives full of different plans
Em                D                Em                D
Excitedly we hold the key to change our hearts and hands
Em                D                Em                D
We climb the hill to see if green fields lie beyond
Em                D                Em                D
Only to realise they ve faded now and gone

[Chorus]

C                D                C                D
And paintbox, you are my only hope
G                D
of covering the faded past and starting out once more
C                C                C                C
With a fortune in new colours, new hopes to inspire
G                D                G                D                Em
I paint the path I want to take and paint the life of fire

[Verse 1]

Em                D                Em                D
Painting pictures of a thousand different paths
Em                D                Em                D
We sketch an outline of a love that hopes to last

Em            D            Em            D
Casting a wand over imaginary hopes
Em            D            Em            D
And close our eyes so we don't feel the ebb and flow

[Chorus]

C            D            C            D
And paintbox, you are my only hope
G            D
of covering the faded past and starting out once more
C            C            C            C
With a fortune in new colours, new hopes to inspire
G            D            G            D            Em
I paint the path I want to take and paint the life of fire