

The Hunchback Of San Francisco
Perry Blake

Classic tune from Perry. Be sure to use the right diction in the chorus.

Use different pickings to try different covers. This is usually piano and double bass.

Intro:

Am Em Dm E

Am Em
Morning has broken the silence of night
Dm E
Now you ll have to use kindness to fight
Am Em
It s just like asbestos, it sticks to your skin
Dm E
it burns within

Luck is a hunchback, travelling light
With rags and transistors to hold up the sky
Drink to the hearts that San Francisco stole
But drink slow

Am Em
Cause I m a lonely Man
Dm E
And you re a lonely Girl
Am Em
And it s a lonely world
Dm E
Yeah, it s a lonely world

If you make Vegas, leave on the lights
I want to see your expression change
Hatred will take us to unknown heights
Drink slow

Cause I m a lonely Man
And you re a lonely Girl
And it s a lonely world
