

You Know Where You Went Wrong
Pet Shop Boys

Am

Two men on the street drinking something cheap

G

No home, no family It s cold, nowhere to sleep

Am

Passers-by never catch their eye anywhere

One man drinks, the other swears

Am

You know where you went wrong

Am

You know where you went wrong, you know

Am

You know where you went wrong

Am

You know where you went wrong, you know

The old man can t understand

No one will shake his hand

I gave security, bombs and colour TV

It cost a few lives - someone s son always dies

No one shakes his hand/ He don t understand

You know where you went wrong

You know where you went wrong, you know

You know where you went wrong

You know where you went wrong, you know

Gm

This is the history of the world

Fm

of every boy and every girl

Fsus

who don t understand what s going on any more

Gm

The history of the world

Fm

of every boy and every girl

Fsus

who don t understand what s going on any more

Two girls with a photograph

One looks, the other laughs

He could have been mine

Why did I change my mind?

Then hands on hips

the other girl says Admit, admit

You know where you went wrong
You know where you went wrong, you know
You know where you went wrong
You know where you went wrong, you know

This is the history of the world
of every boy and every girl
who don t understand what s going on any more
The history of the world
of every boy and every girl
who don t understand what s going on any more

You know where you went wrong
You know where you went wrong, you know
You know where you went wrong
You know where you went wrong, you know
