Sometimes they ask me if I m really happy now

I say, sure, I never loved her any-how

But in-side I long for you and the way it used to be

I look a-round and there s a heartache following me

I always say that I m really glad you re gone

I even act like I never cared at all

But your memory lingers on and I m never really free

I look a-round and there s a heartache following me

I pawned my ring and every-thing that tied me to the past

I say I never loved her, never meant for it to last

But I know it s just a game and the loser s always me

I look a-round and there s a heartache following me
