Once the proud horses

On different courses

Said, no more, no more

Stepped out the door

Maybe you were bored

B F#

Said, no more, no more

There s a name and a fortune

To be made if you want it

Just pick up and head for the shore

So we drink til the memory

B

Fades out of sight

And there s music and hollerin into the night

In this faceless forgettable town

Of the ones that you miss

Tonight boys I tell you
