Songs about the Divide

Tabbed by: Derek Smith

Tunning (low to high) DADF#AD

Capo 2

C: 000000

G/D: 040300

F/D: 020100

C G/D F/D
And so we lay here to rest

C G/D F/D
And so we lay here with the ground beneath our heads

C G/D F/D
And not a word among us has been said

C G/D F/D
My little child.

C G/D F/D
And now the dogs are barking tonight

C G/D F/D
And now the men will bargain as they sell beneath the lights

C G/D F/D
And everything gets colder here at night

C G/D F/D
My little child

Chorus:

G/D F/D
I ve never been so worn and weary

G/D F/D G/D F/C
I ve never missed my love so dearly

My little child

C, G/D, F/D (4x)

And I cannot forget the things I saw
And I cannot forget the way they gathered in the halls
And standing all alone before them all
My little child

And somewhere there is laughter tonight
Somewhere there is singing in the choir in the light

But it s quiet in Jerusalem tonight
It s quiet in Jerusalem tonight
It s quiet in Jerusalem tonight
My little child

(Chorus)

ANd so we lay here to rest
And so we lay here with the ground beneath my head
And not a word among us has been said,
My little child....

Just listen to the CD. And you can get the struming pattern from that.
