Peter McPoland

[Intro]

A A A A

A D A [x3]

A E A

A Asus4 D

A E A

[Verse 1]

A D A

Oh my lovely

A D E

How I long for the roads dressed in flowers

D E A E D

How I long for the meadows to dance right with you

A E A

How I long for my bluebonnets bloom

[Verse 2]

A D A

Oh my sweetheart

A D E

If itâ€™s bonnets that you want, bonnets will grow

D E A E D

I will round up the men and when spring she comes again

A E A

Then your bonnets will be bending with the wind

[Instrumental]

D E A E D

A E A

[Verse 3]

A D A

Oh my brothers and sisters

A D E

How I long for an end to the wars

D E A E D

How I wish for blossoms and pedals and peace

A E A

As I listen to my bluebonnets sing

[Chorus]

D E A E D
They sing out to the loved ones that weâ€™ve lost through the years

D E A E D
They sing out to the frightened and our future and our fears

D E A E D
They sing out high above, past the hate and to the love

[Outro]

A E A
As I listen to my bluebonnets blue [x4]
