

Monday Morning
Peter, Paul and Mary

[Intro]

Dm - E - Am

Dm E Am
1. Early one morninâ€™™, one morninâ€™™ in spring
Dm G C E
to hear the birds whistle, the nightingales sing.
Am G Am Em
I met a fair maiden who sweetly did sing,
Am Dm E Am
Iâ€™™ going to be married next Monday morning.

Dm E Am
2. â€œHow old are you, my fair young maid,
Dm G C E
here in this valley, this valley so green?
Am G Am Em
How old are you, my fair young maid?â€•
Am Dm E Am
â€œIâ€™™ goinâ€™™ to be sixteen next Monday morning.â€•

Dm E Am
3. â€œWell, sixteen years old, thatâ€™™s too young for to marry,
Dm G C E
so take my advice, five years longer to tarry.
Am G Am Em
For marriage brings troubles and sorrows begin,
Am Dm E Am
so put off your wedding for Monday morning.â€•

Dm E Am
4. â€œYou talk like a mad man, a man with no skill,
Dm G C E
two years Iâ€™™ve been waiting against my own will.
Am G Am Em
And now Iâ€™™ determined to have my own way,
Am Dm E Am
and Iâ€™™ going to be married next Monday morning.â€•

Dm E Am
5. â€œAnd next Monday morninâ€™™ the bells they will ring,
Dm G C E
my true love will buy me a gay gold ring.
Am G Am Em
Also heâ€™™ll buy me a new pretty gown
Am Dm E Am
to wear at my wedding next Monday morning.â€•

6. Dm E Am
 â€œNext Monday night when I go to my bed,
 Dm G C E
 and I turn around to the man that Iâ€™ve wed,
 Am G Am Em
 around his middle my two arms I will fling,
 Am Dm E Am
 and I wish to my soul it was Monday morning.â€•
