

The Other Mans Grass Is Always Greener
Petula Clark

Intro: Eb Db Fm Eb Db F Fm

#1.

Fm

Life is never what it seems, we re always searching in our dreams to find that little castle in the air.

Fm

When worry starts to cloud the mind, it s hard to leave it all behind and just pretend you haven t got a care.

#2.

There s someone else in your imagination, you wish that you were standing in their shoes.
You d change your life without much hesitation but would you if you really had to choose?
So, don t look around, get your feet on the ground, it s much better by far, to be just who your are.

Chorus:

The other man s grass is always greener..the sun shines brighter on the other side.
The other man s grass is always greener..some are lucky, some are not..just be thankful for what you ve got.

INTERLUDE: C F Eb Db C

#3.

Fm

Many times it seems to me there s someone else I d rather be..living in a world of make-believe.

Fm

To stay in bed till nearly three with nothing there to worry

C

Fm

me..it d seem to be the life I might achieve.
