Cornered at a costume ball

By a handful of disguises

And they were all the right sizes

I wore them obliviously

Though they would choke the life from me

I got here by myself but
C#m A(the bar one) F#m
I know that I will never leave the same way

I got here by myself but
A (intro chords)
How many more will I have led astray

I work the floor in search of someone

C#m B A D
Who would give me half a chance

I know if I look hard enough

I ll always find someone who ll dance

It s not long before I notice

I can see I m going nowhere

Somewhere that I ve already been

(chorus 2x; then ending)
