Tuning: Standard

Verses:

G
Started with a perfect frame,

Bm
a high speed composite brain.

C D
Made her smart, made her think I was funny.

G D G D D x 2

Gave her independent style,
a super heart melting smile.
Made her kind, her disposition sunny.

Made her slender curvy and tall,
made her not jealous at all.
Made her tough but as cute as a bunny.

Chorus:

C D G Bm
But when I turned her on she wasn't turned on by me.

C Cm G
I guess cyborgs can see who they want to see.

D G F C

Verses

Can you imagine my surprise,
when I looked into those perfect eyes.
I thought they must be mis-calibrated.

At first I thought the focus was off,

then i felt the horrible shock
they were not, she was looking over me.

Chorus:

But when i turned her on she wasn t turned on by me.
I guess cyborgs can see who they want to see.

Solo/Bridge over Verse Chords

Verse:

Now i have a broken heart.
I guess i made her way too smart.
She realized, realized she s too good for me.
Though it really hurt real bad,
there is one thing I m glad about,
the masterpiece i unleashed on the universe.

Chorus

But when i turned her on she wasn t turned on by me.
I guess cyborgs can see who the want to see.

D G F C
D# Bb F# C#
E B G D

But when i turned her on she wasn t turned on by me.
I guess cyborgs can see who the want to see.
