This Is History - Phil Campbell

-----

This transcription is taken from the live performance on Later with Jools Holland .

If you haven't heard it then check it out on YouTube, as it's an incredibly powerful and is better than the album version in my opinion!

Standard Tuning, Capo 2nd Fret

Chords:

I don't know the proper names for the odd chords so I've given them my own numbering to them!

Feel free to correct them!

EADGBE (Capo 2nd fret = 0)

Intro: D D2 D D2

D               D2
Come on and say something
D               D2               A2               G
And we'll walk through pastures new
G           Em2                               D       D2
Maybe then we'll get you thinking
D               D2
You say you got nothing
D               D2               A2               G
But let us feast on what we know
G           Em2                               D       D2
And we'll save the rest for later

D2                F#m2                G
No need to cry, it s all related
G                F#m2                G                A3
And we ll laugh someday, when this is history

D D2 D D2

D                D2
The morning s well over
D                D2                A2                G
A certain freshness leaves the air
G                Em2                D                D2
As we march on into evening
D                D2
You say you wanna meet me
D                D2                A2                G
If only for your peace of mind
G                Em2                D                D2
And I ll hold you to that plenty

D2                F#m2                G
No need to cry, it s all related
G                F#m2                G                A3
And we ll laugh someday, when this is history

Am                G                D
I m holding on to every day in shame
D                Em
You know you wouldn t let me
Am                G                D
And something in my actions still remain
D                Em
You know you re gonna tempt me
Am                G                D
You made me see the other side of love
D                Em
And where it s gonna lead me
Am                G
But in the morning sun
D                D2
I m holy now
D                D2
I m holy now

D2                F#m2                G
No need to cry, it s all related
G                F#m2                G
You ll say goodbye, see, once you ve made it
G                F#m2                G                A3                D
No need to fall, cause baby, this is history
D                D2                D                D2
This is history, Oh, this is history

D D2 D D2 (Ba da dum etc)

Ad lib to end, then:

F2 A3 D
