

Do You Know, Do You Care
Phil Collins

Cm

You said you would,
you didn't and I wanna know why

F Cm7

And don't make no excuses

Cm

You promised, you promised,
you better explain
Though I don't know what the use is

Cm7 Cm

You said you could, you couldn't,
now why did you lie
You made it look so easy
You did it, why do it, what was your point?

Cm7

Laughing while you tease me

Bb

F

Oh, do you know and do you care?

I said I did, I shouldn't 'cos the magic will go
It happened once before
You'll see it, you'll steal it and take it away
And then come back for more
Don't say you weren't, you were 'cos I saw you myself
It's too late for your reason
You're lying, you're lying, you've done it this time
I'm sick of all the cheating

Oh, well do you know and do you care?

Fm Gm

Cos I watch you

Fm Gm Cm Bb

oo every day I watch you pass me by

Fm Gm

I'll get you

Fm Gm

Yes in the end I'll get you

Cm Bb Cm7

Just watch me try

Oh you make it hard to be hard but I m trying my best

Cos down inside I m burnin

You want it, you get it, now take it and run

I ll hide how much it s hurtin

Oh, well do you know and do you care?

Oh, well do you know and do you care?
