G#m C#m B F#/F#

Just a little boy in the town, town, town

F#m7 A B E Eb(with lick 1)

Just a little boy with a frown, frown, frown.

G#m C#m B F#/F#

In the afternoons he goes down, down, down

F#m7 A B E G#m C#

To the lonely room near the lost and found de-partment.

F#m7 F#m7/G

E E/B C#m

There s a little boy in every man s heart

Cdim7 D#dim7 B C#m7 B/B

Crying out, trying out.

E E/B C#m

As he rushes in to hear the band start,

Cdim7 D#dim7 B A

So alone, in the crowd, in the crowd.

E Eb(with lick 1)

G#m C#m B F#/F#

Just a little girl on her daddy s knee,

F#m7 A B E Eb(with lick 1)

Just remember when she was one, two, three.

G#m C#m B F#/F#

In a little while she ll want to be free,

F#m7 A B E G#m C#

And your little girl will be seventeen to-morrow.

F#m7 F#m7/G

E E/B C#m
There s a little girl in every daddy s heart,

Cdim7 D#dim7 B C#m7 B/B
Dreaming eyes, scheming eyes.

E E/B C#m
When she sings for you remember your part,

Cdim7 D#dim7 B A
Listen up, when she cries, when she sighs.

Needing love, needing love.

(REPEAT & FADE)

[lick 1]

after playing the B chord, play 2 single notes, F#, F, on E string to transition to the

Em chord. Just the E string is tabbed here: E:--2-1--|

[CHORDS]

F#/F# 3xx232

F#m7/G 3xx211

E/B x22010

Cdim7 xx1212

D#dim7 xx4545

B/B x20003

A quick music factoid - going from Cdim7 to D#dim7, as tabbed here, the chords are actually interchangeable. In other words, Cdim7 is also D#dim7, and vice versa. And both are also F#dim7, and Adim7. By notating the song as 2 different chords, going from Cdim7 to

D#dim7, is just a way to show a change. I could have just as well as left it only as Cdim7 or D#dim7.
