

All Alone

Philip Drake

Standard tuning

Dm,A,F,C through the whole song

Lyrics

Now she grips to hold on,
but she falls down again, this time the pain won't go away, all her strength comes crashing today, and now it's hard to go on,

now she is slowly crying on the floor,
she is now all alone,
she lost all her self control,
and now she's got nowhere to go,

Try, not to,
fall down, hold on,
i know it can be hard to stay alive, it can be hard to say goodbye, and now she can't move on again,

now she is slowly crying on the floor,
she is now all alone,
she lost all her self control,
and now she's got nowhere to go,
now she is slowly crying on the phone, you left her on her own, yeah, you left her on her own
