

Anything But Me
Phish

E A E A
I am just a satellite, high above the atmosphere
E A B
Bouncing every thing you say to someone who is meant to hear
D A
Sometimes on a rainy day, I lie in bed and dream of you
E A B E A ...etc.
So blame it on the satellite, when your message can t get through

same as first verse

I am just a tiny wave, a minor ripple out at sea
Moving slowly towards the shore, burdened with uncertainty
I m gaining power, losing speed, wondering as I near your door
Will you hold it open for the tidal wave approaching shore?

B E
You ve become an island in the hazy world surrounding me
D A
Offering a vast reward each time I safely cross the sea
C#m B
All too often I become lost in the fog and haze
D A E A E
Clinging still, against my will, to promises of clearer days

same as first verse

I am just a raindrop that accelerates without control
Losing bits and pieces in descent til I m no longer whole
I am just another shooting star above that you might see
Until I have your full attention I ll be anything but me
