Lawn Boy; A Live One

Verse 1:
The (G) woman was a (D) dream I had, though (A)rather hard to(D)keep For (G) when my eyes were (D) watching hers, they (A) closed, and I was still as(D)leep
For (A) when my hand was holding hers, (G)she whispered words and a(D)woke
And faintly (A) bouncing round the room, the (C) echo of whomever spoke

Verse 2:
The (G)place I saw was (D) far beneath the (A) surface of the (D) sea
My (G)sight was poor (D) but I was sure the (A) sirens sang their songs for (D)
They (A) dance above me as I sink, (G) I see them through a crystal (D)haze
And hear them (A) bouncing round the room, the (C) never ending coral
(G) maze

(C) Then before and (G) now once more I m (A) bouncing round the room

(D) That time then and once again I m (A) bouncing round the room
(C) That time then and once again I m (G) bouncing round the room
I awoke, and faintly bouncing round the room, the echo of whomever spoke.
