Verse 1:

E           D           B
I crashed, I burned, but then I learned \
B                                           -- Play Softly
To keep my eye on you                       /
E           D           B
You always say, you ll lead the way
B
But then you never do

Prechorus 1:

A           B           E
I slowed, I swerved, but lost my nerve
E
And quickly looked away
A           B           E
When I looked back, the day was black
E
Then I heard you say

Chorus 1:

D           F#m
Why is the sun hot and
G           Em       G
Why does it rain?
Em         C
Why is there danger and
G           A
Why is there pain?
D           F#m
Why can t the burden
G           Em       G
we carry go away?
Em         C           D
And why isn t it Friday today?

Verse 2:

E                    D                    B
Your lack of trust is hardly just
B
So do as you ve been told
E                    D                    B
Please follow me into the sea
B
Don t worry if it s cold

Prechorus 2:

A                    B                    E
I knew right then, my chance again
E
Had quickly slipped away
A                    B                    E
I crash, I cry, I burn, but I
E
Still follow anyway

Chorus 2:

D                    F#m
Why is the sea cool?
G                    Em                    G
Why is it blue?
Em                    C
Why do I stay here?
G                    A
Why is it you
D                    F#m
notice the danger
                  G                    Em                    G
but don t help in any way?
Em                    C                    D
Why isn t it Friday today?
