

If I Ever Feel Better

C Bm
They say an end can be a start

G
Feels like I've been buried yet I'm still alive
C

It's like a bad day that never ends
I feel the chaos around me

Bm Em
A thing I don't try to deny
I'd better learn to accept that
Em Em/Eb E7 G
There are things in my life that I can't control

Am7 D
They say love ain't nothing but a sore
G G/F# Em
I don't even know what love is
Am7 D
Too many tears have had to fall
G G/F# Em
Don't you know I'm so tired of it all
I have known terror dizzy spells
Finding out the secrets words won't tell
Whatever it is it can't be named
There's a part of my world that's fading away

You know I don't want to be clever
To be brilliant or superior
True like ice, true like fire
Now I know that a breeze can blow me away
Now I know there's much more dignity
In defeat than in the brightest victory
I'm losing my balance on the tight rope
Tell me please, tell me please, tell me please...

Am7 D G G/F# Em

In the circular solitude of my heart

As one who strives a hill to climb

Feels like I ve been buried yet I m still alive

I m losing my balance on the tight rope
Tell me please, tell me please, tell me please...
