

She Likes Another Boy
Pig

Oh no she likes another boy
I m feeling sad and at the end of the day at least I ll know there was something that we had

I see her kiss him with my eyes And it makes me mad but at the end of the day I know she don t love him that bad

And if that s so, I ll wait around
It will take a little time to let you go

I watch her from across the room
She dances so nice , and if I see her again I m not sure we ll be friends

I just want to get a little close So let me in, and if you push me away, baby that s where I ll stay

And if that s so, I ll wait around
It will take a little time to let you go

And if that s so, I ll wait around
It will take a little time to let you go
