Pinkly Smooth

okay so this is my first time figuring out the chords to a song, and I looked everywhere for chords, tabs, ANYTHING that could help me figure out how to play this song, and i found absolutely nothing. This made me sad, therefore, i decided to try tabbing it myself. I don t have perfect pitch so i apologize if it sounds a bit off, and your comments and suggestions are welcome. thanks!

Dm                F                C
Why is this happening to me?
                         G
I ve been back in time
Dm                F                                C
And feeling ties are much too strong
   G
and there s a wolf inside
         Dm                                C                G
and lately he s been shakin all night
         Dm                                C                                G
and i wonder how they could ve let you die
                 F                C                                Dm                                Bb
hold on strong and behold from the life you leave behind
F                C                                Dm
this could be catastrophic mind pollution
G                                Bb                                C
what you had was real to me, ohh yeah

Dm                F                C
Why is this happening again?
                         G
I ve been ostracized
         Dm                                F                                C
and I can t seem to calm you down
   G
I m still your father child
         Dm                                C                G
and lately he s been shakin all night
         Dm                                C                                G
and i wonder how they could ve let you die
                 F                C                                Dm                                Bb
hold on strong and behold from the life you leave behind
F                C                                Dm
this could be catastrophic mind pollution
G                                Bb                                C
what you had was real to me, ohh

Dm    Bb    C

ohhh not again

F C
this is not my memory

Dm Bb
taken from my friends

Dm C G
and lately he s been shakin all night

Dm C G
and i wonder how they could ve let you die
