Has pushed you away,
                         A                    E
And you can t deal with the pain,
                         B                    F#m
And now you re trying to fix me,
A                    E
Mend what he did,
                         B                    F#m
And find the piece that i m missing,

C#m                    B
You could be my hero,
                         E                    A
If only I could let go,
B                    F#m
But his love is still in me,
                         C#m                    B
Like a broken arrow.

You feel love but you just can't embrace it,
E                    B            F#m            A
When you found the right one at the wrong time.

C#m                    B
