Lori Meyers used to live upstairs
Asus4

Our parents had been friends for years

At nine years old there s no such thing

Almost every afternoon we d play forbidden games

But it wasn t recognition of her face, what brought me back
Was a familiar mark as it flashed across the screen
I bought some magazines, some video tape scenes
Incriminating acts, I felt that I could save her... But she said

Who the hell are you to tell me how to live?
You think I sell my body; I merely sell my time
I ain t no Cinderella, I ain t waiting for no prince to save me
In fact until just now I was doing just fine. And on and on..

You think you know what degradation is, I felt it on the floor At the factory where I worked once before I took control, now I answer to me
The 50K I make this year will go anywhere I please

So where s the problem?
