

Good Fortune

Threw my bad fortune of the top of a tall building I d rather have done it with you

Your boy s smile five in the morning looked into your eyes and I was really in love

In Chinatown hung over you showed me just what I could do

Talking about time travel and the meaning just what it was worth

Things I once thought unbelievable in my life have all taken place

When we walked through little Italy I saw my reflection come right of your face

I paint pictures to remember you re too beautiful to put into words

Like a gypsy you dance in circles all around me and all over the world

So I take my good fortune and I fantasize of our leaving

Like some modern-day gypsy landslide, like some modern day Bonnie and Clyde

On the run again

And I feel like some bird of paradise, my bad fortune slipping away

And I feel the innocence of a child, everybody s got something good to say
