Lyrics:

(verse music)

Hey there

Luna

I d like to                      tell you how sad                          am I so love sick                    I could die

Needing                          water my neck stiff                   my head hurts been looking up                all night been looking up                she s so bright

(prechorus music)
She s so white                   she s so clean
I m telling you                  she s everything I d give it all                  my sorry eyes give just everything            she s got me so mesmerized

(chorus music)
it s just the things that she does to me yeah she s fucked my memory

(verse)
Don t bite                      the doctor
???                                ???
needles                          stick in her and she ll be                   your Luna

(prechorus)
I stuck em in real clean        I stuck em in her mouth
I drew her down on me        I drew her with a smile
I d give it all you see        I d give my sorry eyes
I d give just everything        she s got me so mesmerized

(chorus)
it s just the things that she does to me
yeah she s fucked my memory

(verse music four times)

(chorus)
it s just the things that she does to me
oh she s fucked my memory
I made her walk all over me
oh she s fucked my memory

(for the rest of the song, just play the second half of the chorus)

no she s fucked my memory
no she s fucked my memory
no she s fucked my memory
