Bosco - Placebo

F#

I love you more than any man,
But something s getting in the way.

B

I do you harm because I can,
For the second time today.

F#

Victims we are not of happenstance,
But you re a victim all the same.

B

Stuck inside a circumstance,
With your confusion and your blame.

B

D#m

And when I get drunk,

C#

You take me home

B

And keep me safe

D#m

From harm.

C#

When I get drunk,

B

You take me home.

F#

I ask you for another second chance,
But then I drink it all away.

B

And I get bellicose when you react,
For love, frustration and dismay.

F#

I was so delicate when we began,
So tender when I spoke your name.

B

But now I m nothing but a partisan,
To my compulsion and my shame.

B

D#m

And when I get drunk,

C#

You take me home

B

And keep me safe

D#m

From harm.

C#

When I get drunk,

B

You take me home.

You know I m grateful,

But in fact it s baleful,

How I suck you dry

How I suck you dry

How I suck you dry

How I suck you dry

F#

I love you more than any man,

But I seem to lay it all to waste.

B

I do you harm because I can,

With a joke in questionable taste.

F#

I ve such duplicity at my command,

So I keep on lying to your face.

B

Then I run away to wonderland,

Disappear without a trace.

B

D#m

And when I get drunk,

C#

You take me home

B

And keep me safe

D#m

From harm.

C#

When I get drunk,

B

You take me home.
