The call to arms was never true time to imbibe here s to you
I ll tell you stories bruised and blue of drum machines and landslides
Just one more round before we re through more psychedelic yuppie flu
It s such a silly thing to do and now we re stuck on rewind
The call to arms was never true let s take a ride and push it through Suspended animation glue blame it on apartheid
Let s spend the night in Jimmy Choo s I ll give you coats and cheap shampoo
I ll give you nothing else to do and now we re stuck on rewind
The call to arms was never true I m medicated how are you
Let s take a dive swim right through sophisticated points of view
