

Second Sight

Placebo

C Em

Walk away to save your face you never were a genius
Walk away to save your face you let it come between us
Walk away to save your face you never were a genius
Walk away to save your face you never were, you never were
Walk away to save your face you never were an actor
Walk away to save your face here comes the morning after
Walk away to save your face you never were an actor
Walk away to save your face you never were, you never were
Yes it s just the second night but I would break backsides for you
Yes I know you re the jealous type cause I m cursed with second sight so
Third verse same as the first
Walk away, you never were
