

Too Many Friends
Placebo

Em D
My computer thinks I m gay
C
I threw that piece of junk away
(C)
On the Champs-Elysées, as I was walking home

Em D
This is my last communiqué
C
Down the supper highway
(C)
All that I have left to say, in a single tome

G
I got too many friends
D
Too many people that I ll never meet
Em
And I ll never be there for
C
I ll never be there for, cause I ll never be there

Em D
If I could give it all away
C
Would it come back to me someday?
(C)
Like a needle in the hay or an expensive stone

Em D
But I ve got a reason to declaim
C
The applications are to blame
(C)
For all my sorrow and my pain, of feeling so alone

G
I got too many friends
D
Too many people that I ll never meet
Em
And I ll never be there for
C
I ll never be there for, cause I ll never be there

Too many friends

D

Too many people that I ll never meet

Em

And I ll never be there for

C

B

I ll never be there for, cause I ll never be there

Em

D

My computer thinks I m gay

C

What s the difference anyway

C

When all the people do all day, is stare into a phone

G

I got too many friends

D

Too many people that I ll never meet

Em

And I ll never be there for

C

I ll never be there for, cause I ll never be there

G

Too many friends

D

Too many people that I ll never meet

Em

And I ll never be there for

C

G

I ll never be there for, cause I ll never be there

D

I ll never be there

Em

I ll never be there

C

I ll never be there

Em (one strum to finish)

I ll never be there
